

New Vocabulary
Step 1: Say the word and a simple definition.
Step 2: Connect the word to the students' background knowledge and experiences.
Step 3: Connect the new word to the text,
Step 4: Ask the students to define the word to a partner.

New Vocabulary Example
bandit

1. bandit – A bandit is a thief.
2. If someone steals your bookbag, that person is a bandit or thief.
3. In this book, you are going to learn about a raccoon that is called a bandit because he is a thief. He likes to steal food from trash cans.
4. Turn and talk. Explain the meaning of the word to the person sitting next to them.